

Psoriasis Epidemiology Screening Tool (PEST) Questionnaire

PEST is a simple screening questionnaire consisting of five questions which has been developed to help identify cases of psoriatic arthritis in a population of people with known psoriasis.

PEST is a simple screening questionnaire consisting of five questions which has been developed to help identify cases of psoriatic arthritis in a population of people with known psoriasis.

Authors

Professor Philip Helliwell

References

G.H. Ibrahim, M.H. Buch, C. Lawson, R. Waxman, P.S. Helliwell.(2009), <https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/19604440/>, Clinical and Experimental Rheumatology, 27,
467-474

L C Coates, L J Savage, H Chinoy, P M Laws, C R Lovell, E Korendowych, F Mahmood, H R
Mathieson, D McGonagle, R B Warren, R Waxman, P S Helliwell(2018),
<https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/29578628/>, J Eur Acad Dermatol Venereol, 32(9), 1530-1534

<https://licensing.leeds.ac.uk/product/psoriasis-epidemiology-screening-tool-pest-questionnaire>